R. L. Hodge,

Brownsville, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of June 27, 1938, in which you request to be furnished with the name of any book containing a history of the 2d Mississippi Infantry, C.S.A.

The War Department has never compiled a history of the 2d Mississippi Infantry, C.S.A.

However, the official records of the Union and Confederate armies, contain information relative to the 2d Mississippi Infantry, C.S.A. These records may be consulted in the following libraries in Texas: Public Library on Lamar Literary Society at San Antonio; Camp Meade, P.O. Box 105 (Rev. J. L. Cott), at Alveston; University of Texas and the Bureau of the Census at Austin, Texas.

Some information on the regiment may also be obtained from the publication entitled "Official and Statistical History of the 2d Mississippi Infantry, C.S.A.", published by the American Printing Company, Nashville, Tenn., 1908, which may be consulted in the large public library.

Very truly yours,

Major General,
Department of War,
Washington, D.C.

The Regiment marched from Harpers Ferry to Sumners Hill, thence to Winchester. On the 7th at midnight the Regiment marched back to Harpers Ferry & brought off a large quantity of public property. Scouts were sent to Sandy Hook. The Regiment then returned to Winchester. The Regiment is well posted in battalion drill. It can perform all battalion maneuvers at quick or slow or quick times. The recruits & new men have been among my men for two months, but now the Regiment is fast improving & in 10 days will be all right again. We have 200 Conscript, who will report for duty in a few days. We are all satisfied & anxious to serve our country to the best advantage.
